 This is a very high deep house of the Federal period. It is three bays wide and four deep with a high, gently sloping A-roof. There are twin chimneys on the right end of the house. All the windows are 6/6 sashes and the door occupies the left front bay. The front of the house is Flemish bond brick while the sides and rear are covered with stucco. There are panelled shutters on the first story while those on the second are louvered. There is a simple wooden cornice along the front roof line of the house. This house has an attractive silhouette and is noteworthy for its large proportions and twin chimneys.   Condition: Good, but needs repairs 		OPEN TO PUBLIC NO
