STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE (Include Personages, Dates, Events, Etc.)

"Efton Hills" is credited with being the birthplace and home of Admiral Raphael Semmes of Civil War fame though this could be disputed. It was a Semmes home but it's more likely that Raphael was born in another earlier house.

Charles Riddle, William F. Bowling, L. M. Southerland, and P. A. L. Contee.

Not all the Charles County men served in this battery as we also find individuals like Basil Spalding who ran away from school and enlisted in the Confederate Cavalry in 1862 when he was just a boy of 17. He served to the end of the War in Mosby's Raiders. After the war, Mr. Spalding lived at Green Park near Pomfret until his death in 1929.

Perhaps the most famous of all Charles Countians to serve in the Confederate cause was Admiral Raphael Semmes. Semmes was born at Efton Hills near Nanjemoy in Charles County in 1790. He was appointed a midshipman in the United States Navy 1826. While waiting for his orders, he studied law and was admitted to the bar. He was promoted to Lieutenant in 1837 and served with distinction in the Mexican War. In recognition of his services in the Mexican War, a resolution was passed by the General Assembly of Maryland that thanks and congratulations of the Legislature were tendered to him for his gallant conduct during the war with Mexico and they recommended him to the favorable consideration of the Executive of the National Government for promotion.

In 1861, Semmes resigned from the United States Navy and immediately entered the Confederate Navy. He was put in command of the noted Confederate raider "The Alabama" which, in a cruise of three years, did more damage to Union shipping than any single ship in the Confederate Navy. The "Alabama," most formidable of the Confederate Privateers, destroyed an estimated eight to ten million dollars worth of United States property.

After the War, Admiral Semmes settled in Mobile, Alabama, where he practiced law and devoted himself to literary pursuits until his death in 1877.

The feelings of the people in the County in regard to the Union side may be seen in their response to President Lincoln's call for volunteers. In 1862, there was one volunteer
