Slater House CH-599

Contributing Resource Count: 1

7: Description:

Located on the north side of Pomfret Road, the Slater House is a one and one-half story, three-bay house with vinyl siding. According to the current owner, the house was hand built by his grandfather James Thomas Slater in the 1930s. The circa 1930 front-gable house features one-over-one sash windows, two interior brick chimneys, and a pressed metal roof. The house rests on concrete piers. The three-bay front porch is supported by concrete piers with replacement square posts. There is a small shed addition to the side of the house. According to the owners, the house was extensively remodeled on the interior and exterior recently.

#8: Statement of Significance:

This building does not appear eligible for the National Register under Criteria A, B, or C. There is no known association with important events or people, the house has been altered and is typical for the area.
