Description of Property and Eligibility Determination (Use continuation sheet if necessary and attach map and photo)

The simple, ~~hall and parlor type~~ vernacular house has a side-gabled roof with half-gabled extension at the rear. A one-bay wide entry addition at the main elevation. The roof is a standing seam metal roof and the house has been re-sided with aluminum or vinyl siding.

The village of Waldorf became an important interchange on Crain Highway between the lower section of southern Maryland and Washington, D.C. A substantial expansion was experienced in the 1920s both commercially and residentially and established a greater presence for Waldorf in Charles County. In anticipation of Crain Highway's completion, the area known as Waldorf was surveyed and subdivided. Hotels, shops, restaurants, and a school were just a few of the amenities that were constructed during the 1920s.

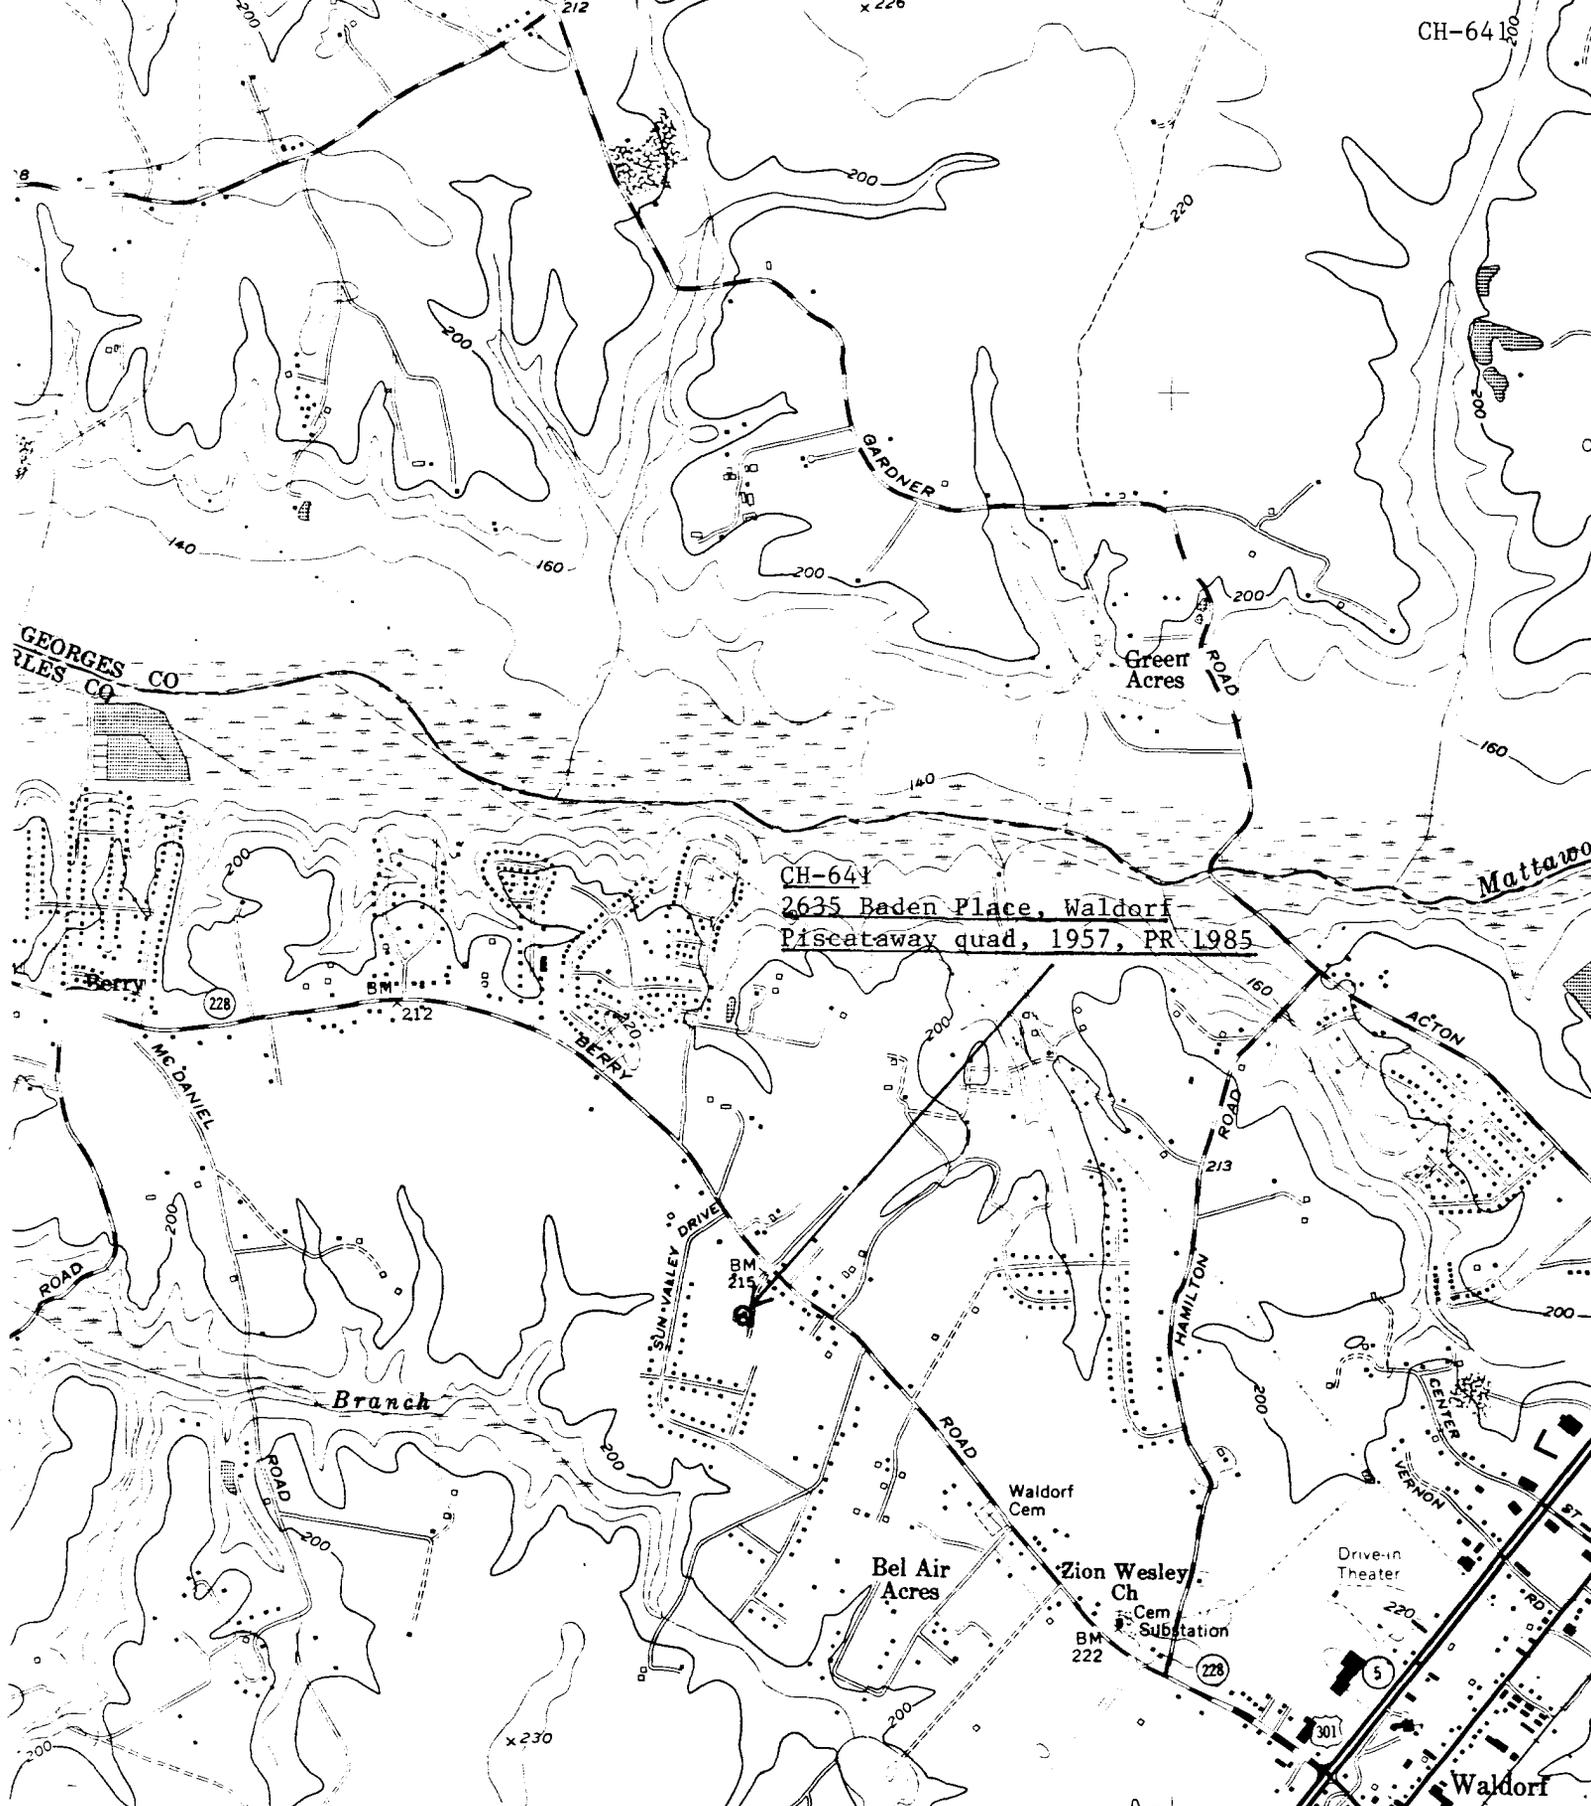

World War II and the increasing dependence upon motor vehicles played a very important role in the development of the northern sections of Charles County. Charles County continued its relative isolation from large-scale residential and commercial development until after Crain Highway was dualized and designated U.S. 301 in the 1960s. Earlier
