

trends in travel-related services and entertainment along the Crain Highway grew somewhat when the highway was extended across the Potomac River to Virginia through southern Charles County and over the new Harry W. Nice Bridge in 1940, thus completing a route from New York to Florida.

Built circa 1940, this house is not eligible for the National Register. While it is typical of the residential development within the Waldorf area, this resource lacks significance related to events, persons, or architecture. Criterion D, information potential, was not assessed for this study.
