DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

#121 is a low, 2-1/2 story, detached frame house, two narrow bays wide and three in depth with a full-width extension of three bays. The entire building is now sheathed with asphalt shingles. An older, lifelong resident of the street states that this house formerly was sited back in the middle of the block. A newer door occupies the left (W) bay with a full-width covered porch supported by turned pillars. A 2/2 sash window lies to the right of the door and the upper story and side windows retain 6/6 sash. The newer, rear section has 1/1 sash. This house has a moderate slope, metal "A" frame roof with the gable facing the street and a small chimney rises at the end of the original front section. The house rests on a low fieldstone foundation.
