#129 is a detached, two story, brick house, two bays wide and approximately five bays deep with a rear balcony now enclosed. A newer door occupies the left bay protected by a covered porch with turned pillars and Victorian cut brackets. All house windows are of 1/1 sash with two row header segmental brick arches with those on the front having the infills decorated by roundels as above the door. The metal roof slopes to the rear and is fronted by a boxed cornice with the frieze decorated by a band of dentils supported by Victorian cut brackets at each end. The house sets on a low fieldstone foundation with high brick cellar walls and is fronted by a brick pavement. The walls are of "seconds" bricks from the nearby Schiltnecht Brickworks and laid in common bond.
