#229 is a 2-1/2 story detached brick house four bays wide and two bays in depth with a two story brick "L" shaped wing one bay deep and 3-1/2 bays wide and other "L" shaped brick extensions with a rear balcony. The front facade is faced with unpainted pressed brick and all is in common bond. A glass over panels door lies off center of the front and front windows are of 1/1 sash with flat brick arches. Rear windows are of 2/2 sash and the wings have 1/1 sash, all with wood lintels and sills. The attic is well lighted by a 1/1 sash window in the centered front roof pediment; by a double 1/1 sash shed roofed dormer window on the rear roof; by two six pane windows in the left (W) gable and another six pane sash on the right side. The front section has a steep slope "A" frame slate roof with small chimneys on each end and the wings have metal shed roofs. The front section roofline is ended by a moulded cornice with dentil trim on the front and a plainer moulded cornice on the rear. This house sets on a rather high fieldstone foundation.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

Even though not an old house, this is probably the granddaddy of this side of the block and except for the off-centered front door, could be considered Victorian Gothic.
