DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

A 2-1/2 story brick house, detached on the left side, it is three bays square with two story "U" shaped wings, four bays long and one bay wide with balconies on the ends. Brickwork is of common bond, painted on the front. The first floor contains an ordinary store front and apartment entrance. The top half is quite ornate, being topped by two pediments with dentil trim, lunette windows and gables topped by a design in the brickwork. These pediments rest on a brick cornice of four rows of dentils and a belt course. Another belt course connects the second floor windows and is in a design  of vertical and horizontal brickwork. Front second story windows are  of large square 1/1 sash with a pair of smaller round arched 1/1 sash with hoodmolds in the center of the facade. Rear windows are 6/1 sash with wood lintels and sills. The glass paneled doors have overlights. The front section has a moderate slope metal roof as do the wings. A tall enclosed chimney rises from the left wall. The building rests on a low fieldstone foundation. The rear yard has nice tall trees but is, at present, weed filled.
