DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This is now a three story detached brick building three bays wide and approximately four bays deep with a two story brick "L" shaped wing, six bays long and 1-1/2 bays wide with side galleries, a two bay deep, two story frame extension, a third story frame addition to the wing and a small brick dependency on the rear with heart shaped louvers in the doors. All brickwork is painted common bond. According to the side brickwork and roofline, this was originally a 2-1/2 story Federal house with the front half built out to three stories during the Victorian era. The front entranceway occupies the left bay and is of three part Federal style with a six panel door with center panels carved in scrolls, sidelights separated by Doric pillars, paneled enframing, wide transom with the transom bar decorated by Greek fretwork (which also adorns the tops of the pillars) and a white marble sill. All front windows on the first and second stories are of 6/6 sash with flat brick arches of long shaped voussoirs, granite sills and louvered shutters. The newer third story windows are smaller with 1/1 sash, flat brick arches of shaped voussoirs and wood sills. There are two 6/6 JIB window-doors on the rear of the front section with the first floor having a three section JIB with sidelights. All others are of 6/6 sash with wood lintels and sills and louvered shutters. The four wing doors have four panels and four pane overlights. The rear of the third story is lighted by several 6/6 peaked dormer windows. The front roofline slopes down to the "A" frame ridge joining the rear steep slope. There are sidewall roof curtains and the remains of twin enclosed chimneys in the right gable. The wing has a slight slope shed roof. The front roofline is adorned by a rather simple cornice adorned by small bands of dentils, pierced patera, chevrons, and moulding supported by three narrow moulded brackets. The building rests on a low foundation.
