DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This frame farmhouse is situated in a hilly, semi-wooded area off Westernport Road approximately 1/2 mile southwest of Twin Churches Road. The house faces southwest. It is a story-and-a-half, three bay by two bay gable roof structure with a story-and-a-half two bay by one bay gable roof ell extending from the center of the rear northeast elevation. Single story shed additions slope off the northwest and southeast elevations of the ell. A single story three bay by one bay shed addition extends across the facade. The house is entered from the northwest elevations of both the facade and rear shed additions.

An exterior brick chimney is located on the rear northeast elevation of the ell. One over one sash windows light the house with single pane windows in the half story. Drip cap molding frame the windows (except on the facade addition). The house rests on a cinderblock foundation German siding covers the house with the exception of aluminum siding on the facade addition. The roof is covered with corrugated metal.

A barn and corn crib are located to the northwest of the house and a springhouse to the northeast.
