DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This farm straddles Underwood Road south of Oakland. A gambrel-roofed frame bank barn stands on the northwest side of the road, and a two story frame house is located southeast of the road.

The four bay long dwelling is covered by an enclosed front porch and an open rear porch. 6/6 windows light the south hall of the house, and 2/2 windows light the north section, suggesting two building periods.

An interior chimney heats the south end of the house. The aluminum sided house is covered by an asphalt roof. The house stands on a stone foundation.

The well-preserved bank barn stands on a stone foundation and is covered with horizontal weatherboards.
