John Hinebaugh House
Sang Run
Private

1821 and late 19th century

Only the two-story, three-bay shell remains of this much-altered house. The building once included a rear ell and one-story, four-bay dwelling built in the early 19th century. The extant section's central stair was rebuilt within a modern rear addition, floored in the 2" thick structural planks from the dismantled original dwelling.

A stone inscribed "I.F. Sep 18, 1821" built into the structure's foundation may indicate that the earliest dwelling on this site was built by Isaiah or Israel Friend.
