STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

This house is example of a common western Maryland type. Houses of this general configuration, a rectangular main block and rear kitchen section, were constructed in Garrett County from the late nineteenth through the early twentieth centuries.

This house was built on property previously owned by the Beachy family, early settlers in this area (see G-III-B-086). The Beachys owned a large amount of land in this area in the 19th and early 20th centuries.
