DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This frame house is situated in a hilly area on Mansfield Road approximately 2.25 miles northwest of Rt. 219. The house faces south-east. It is a two story, three bay by four bay structure with a gable roof, gable end front. A wooden porch, supported by turned posts runs the length of the facade. A small wooden deck (the porch overhang is now gone) is located at the back end of the northeast elevation. A porch supported by plain square posts is set into the southwest elevation with a porch above it on the second story supported by turned posts with balustrades. The facade entrance is set to the south end. Entrances are also located at the deck and southwest elevation porches.

The house has a central brick chimney and an interior gable end brick chimney. One over one sash windows with plain surrounds and drip cap window heads light the house. The cellar is entered at the southwest elevation. The house rests on a stone foundation. The original narrow weatherboard siding with cornerboards covers the exterior except on the southwest and northwest elevations which are covered with composition siding. The roof is covered with tarpaper.

A couple small frame outbuildings are located northeast of the house.
