Description of Property and Justification: (Please attach map and photo)

Constructed in 1965 as an equipment shelter, this 10 by 10 foot building currently is classified as an ordinance facility. The three-sided building is constructed of 6-inch steel plate and covered by a wood-frame, shed roof. The building lies on a concrete foundation and large lifting eyes are located near the tops of the steel walls.

Building E1432 was evaluated against National Register guidelines to determine if it retained those qualities of significance and integrity to merit further consideration for eligibility to the National Register. This building bears no direct association with important themes at Edgewood Arsenal (Criterion A); research did not reveal any associations with individuals important in Cold War history (Criterion B); and, the building does not possess the distinctive characteristics of a type, period or method of construction (Criterion C). Additionally, Building E1432 is not 50 years old, and must satisfy Criteria Consideration G to merit further consideration for National Register eligibility. Building E1432 does not possess exceptional importance to meet the threshold requirements of Criteria Consideration G. Building E1432 served as a support structure, secondary to the primary mission of Aberdeen Proving Ground in the Cold War Era. This structure does not possess the qualities of significance or integrity for listing in the National Register of Historic Places.
