STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

This was a popular source of roofing slate during the late-1800's/early-1900's. It is the only place in the area (aside from a small deposit at Mt. Ephriam) that furnished slate. Roofs for some of the finest houses all over the county were supplied from this quarry.
