DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This was an old, two-story, frame house that was burned by the Fire Dep't. a day or two before our arrival. The house had a large, fieldstone foundation and a brick fireplace chimney on one end. The farm buildings are still standing and these include a corn crib/shed, and a large, frame bank barn, with louvered windows and metal vent caps with finials.

There are two cement and tile silos next to the barn.
