Prepare both a summary paragraph of significance and a general statement of history and report.

The Duvall farmhouse is an early twentieth century, rural vernacular dwelling. Its three bay, center gable facade is fairly typical of the rural architecture of Montgomery County. This house does in fact closely resemble another house in the area, also built by a member of the Duvall family (see site # 14-7). This house, however, is in better condition. It has been given a more modern look with the application of a pebble-dash exterior. Decorative architectural features of this house include the scalloped shingles in the gable ends and the front entry with transom and sidelights. There is a two story wing to the house, probably dating from the early 1920's. The house also has a small, single story addition to the northwest elevation. The Duvall family was among the early settlers to this area and owned (and still owns) a number of farms here.

The house was built sometime between 1900 and 1903 by Jefferson Duvall.¹ It was constructed on property Jefferson received from his in-laws, Jeremiah and Cordelia Williams, who owned the neighboring farm.² The house sat on Jefferson's farm of approximately 51 acres. He and his wife sold the farm in November of 1938 to Norman and Nellie Lynch who also ran a farm here.³ Nellie, by now a widow, sold the farm in October of 1959. It was purchased in 1962 by Elwood and Doris Renn who subdivided the land; selling the old Duvall farmhouse on 1.59 acres to Robert and Dorothy Smith, the present owners, in June of 1967.⁴

¹The date is based on a conversation with the present owner, Dorothy Smith and the tax assesment records.

²Information from Mr. McKendree Bowman & Deed 180/83.
