DESCRIPTION: This Colonial Revival house sits on the corner of the Asbury Methodist Home property and Russell Avenue. The wrap-around porch gives the appearance of two front facades. There is symmetrical 1/1 fenestration. There is a dormer with a double window in center gable. This house was recently denied Historic Site designation by the City Historic Preservation Commission in response to a demolition request by Asbury Methodist Home. Presently, negotiations are underway to move the house to a suitable single family lot and use it once again as a residence.
