DESCRIPTION: This house is one of the many typical "Gaithersburg Style" American four-squares in this neighborhood. There is symmetrical 1/1 double hung sash fenestration with side-by-side windows on the first storey left bay. There is a full width front porch supported by four plain wood columns. The roof has front, left, and right gables with a diamond window in the facade gable. There is a boxed cornice with plain return and frieze.
