Prepare both a summary paragraph of significance and a general statement of history and support.

The Frank Brown house is significant as an example of vernacular architecture typical to that constructed in Montgomery County from the mid-nineteenth through the early twentieth centuries. The house is believed to have been built by A.B. Davis about 1860 and may be partially of log construction.¹ The house sat on 687 acres of a tract of land referred to as "Addition to Brooke Grove." The house, on 17 acres, 2 rods and 33 perches, was conveyed to Frank Brown in September of 1883 for $885.31.² Frank was a carpenter who lived in the house until 1910 when he passed the house on to Clarence Brown.³ Based on a substantial rise in the assessed value of the house, the addition to it was built between 1882 and 1910 by either Frank or Clarence.⁴ Clarence did add outbuildings to the property in 1923.⁵

In October of 1926, Clarence and his wife, Catherine, sold the house and it went through a succession of owners. Finally, in July of 1969 it was sold to Robert and Tonia McPheeters, the present owners. The house still sits on 17 acres, 2 rods and 33 perches.⁶

¹ Date is based on the fact that the house appears on the Martenet & Bond map of 1865 but does not appear on Grady's 1858 map made of A.B. Davis property.

APPENDIX A

SITES NOT RECOMMENDED FOR REGULATION UNDER THE HISTORIC PRESERVATION ORDINANCE CHAPTER 24A OF THE MONTGOMERY COUNTY CODE

The following sites have been reviewed by the Montgomery County Historic Preservation Commission and were found not to merit designation of the Master Plan for Historic Preservation. If not included in the Master Plan, these resources may be removed from the Locational Atlas and Index of Historic Sites in Montgomery County. If removed from the Locational Atlas, the sites will no longer be governed by the Moratorium on Alteration and Demolition, Section 24A-10 of the County's Historic Preservation Ordinance. The sites will, however, remain on the Maryland Historical Trust's Inventory.

The following sites were found by the Preservation Commission to be too greatly altered from the period of their architectural or historical significance or not to meet Ordinance criteria for designation.
