Description of Property and Eligibility Determination: (Use continuation sheet if necessary and attach map and photo):

The house is a 1½ -story, wood-frame, Cape Cod-style residence set back from MacArthur Boulevard just north of the Capital Beltway. Constructed in 1920, the house is 3-bays wide with asbestos shingle siding and a central entrance. The side-gable roof has wood shingles, is punctured by two gabled dormers with double-hung, 6/6 sash windows, and has a brick corbelled chimney at the east end. The original windows in the house have been replaced with 8/8, double-hung windows. The windows and doors have shutters. The building is set on a ridge and is accessed by a driveway that is shared with the Potter Farmhouse located at 8400 MacArthur Boulevard (M:29-35). The rear yard has a small, frame, gable-roof shed to the southeast of the house.

The Summerville Property, constructed in 1920, is not eligible for the National Register of Historic Places. The property is not eligible under Criterion A, as research conducted indicates no association with any historic events or trends significant in the development of national, state or local history. This individual resource is ubiquitous to suburban areas and is not sufficient by itself to represent the theme of suburbanization. Historic research indicates that the property has no association with persons who have made specific contributions to history, and therefore, it does not meet Criterion B. It is not eligible under Criterion C, as the house on the property is an undistinguished example of a common building type that lacks distinguishing features. Furthermore, the addition of artificial siding and the replacement of the original windows diminish the original architectural character it once had. Investigations have not been conducted to determine whether the property has the potential to yield information important in history or pre-history, therefore, National Register Criterion D can not be assessed at this time.
