The property at 8706 Reading Road does not meet the National Register Criteria for individual listing. A circa 1940s gable roofed cottage with a covered front stoop, this very small and modest house exhibits a slight Colonial Revival influence. The house is a stripped down version of a house type which was widely popular throughout the country in suburban developments of the 1940s and 1950s. It is not an outstanding example of this common type. In addition, 8706 Reading Road is not located in any known historic district. It is located well north of the Takoma Park Historic District and that area which may be eligible as an expansion of the Takoma Park Historic District.
