Description:

The Itzhak Allal Property is a 1½-story, 3-bay side gable cottage on the south side of Sandy Spring Road in Burtonsville, Montgomery County. The cottage was constructed circa 1940.

The structure has an asphalt shingle, side gable roof with an interior chimney near the center of the house at the gable peak. It is of wood frame construction with beveled wood siding, and it has a concrete masonry foundation. The windows are double-hung, aluminum sash. The house has a small entry porch on the north elevation. The porch has an asphalt shingle, gable roof supported by two wood posts. The porch deck is of treated lumber bearing on concrete masonry at the corners.

There is one outbuilding associated with this property. The outbuilding is a garage with a gable roof covered with standing seam metal. Constructed circa 1950, it is of wood frame construction. The structure is located south of the house.

The property is located on the south side of Sandy Spring Road with residential property to the east, south and west. There are several native trees on the site. The ground slopes steeply away from Sandy Spring Road to about four feet above the road, then is level for the remainder of the property. The property's setting is suburban, with heavily traveled Sandy Spring Road, 75 feet to the north of the house.
