9. Description: This two-and-a-half story, three bay by two bay house faces east. It has white asbestos siding and has been enlarged by additions on the south and west elevations. The east porch wraps around to the south elevation. It has a shed roof supported by seven turned posts. The west porch has been enclosed and is now a sun room. There are two-over-two double-hung windows flanked by black wooden louvered shutters. There is a two story bay window on the south elevation. The house has a gable roof with north and south cross gables. The roof has black asbestos shingle covering.

10. Significance: The Clabaugh/Talbot house in Somerset Heights is one of Montgomery County's earliest standardized suburban houses.

The area which became "Somerset Heights" was subdivided by five employees of the Department of Agriculture who invested in 50 acres of "Friendship" in 1890. Their promotional brochure, along with an agreement that each initial investor should immediately construct his own dwelling, produced early activity, but construction slowed down by the end of the decade.

In 1899 and 1900 Edward Halliday bought 24 unimproved lots in the subdivision including lots 9 and 11 (Warwick Place) which he further subdivided for three houses. Constructed in 1901, Halliday's Warwick houses were of the same plan. Each is two-and-a-half stories high with a front gable and wrap-around porch. This house had two owners before being bought in 1919 by Louise Clabaugh. She owned it until 1938, selling it then to Edwin and Anita Talbot, who sold it to the present owners in 1962.

DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This two and a half story, three bay by two bay house faces east on Warwick Place.

Built on fieldstone foundations, it now has white asbestos siding. It has been altered by additions on the south and west elevations. The east (front) porch wraps around to the south elevation. It has a shed roof supported by seven turned posts. The east door has 18 glass panes. The west (rear) porch has been enclosed and now is a sun room, with six-over-one double-hung windows. It has a shed roof.

The two-over-two double-hung windows of the house are flanked by black wooden louvered shutters. There is a two story bay window with splayed sides on the south elevation. The south addition has paired six-light casement windows.

The house has a gable roof with cross gables on the north and south elevations. The roof is covered by black asbestos shingles. There is one interior chimney. A one-car garage is west of the house. It has a gable roof and a large door which opens east.
