

vainly the University petitioned to save the charm of the once isolated town, but frequently its faculty and students were only too eager to find quarters in the jerry-built houses nearby. Indeed, the University's huge construction program only added to the rawness." The local setting has continuously evolved with late twentieth century strip malls and franchises replacing the "truck stops and filling stations" described circa 1940.

This simple brick commercial structure is not eligible for the National Register. The resource lacks significance related to events, persons, or architecture. Criterion D, information potential, was not assessed for this study.
