Prepare both a summary paragraph and a general description of the resource and its various elements as it exists today.

Two-story brick commercial building, built 1918-1920. Central door (recessed) with flush to the wall display windows each side. Large glass windows are replacement, date unknown. There are three, second story windows facing the street, with metal, color-stripped awnings, possibly early 1970's. Horizontal cornice three feet below top of front slightly wraps around the building. Original interior has been altered to fit a restaurant area. The brick face has been painted a color darker than the natural brick.
