Criteria: A B C D Considerations: A B C D E F G None

Justification for decision: (Use continuation sheet if necessary and attach map)

According to the information presented to Review and Compliance, the single-family dwelling at 9020 Stevens Lane in Lanham, MD. is not located in any historic district, nor is it eligible for individual listing in the National Register of Historic Places. Built in the early to mid-20th century, the dwelling is a 1-1/2-story frame structure with an encompassing gable roof and single-story, wrap-around porch. The house is representative of the vernacular domestic architecture of this period and lacks the architectural distinction to qualify for individual listing in the National Register under Criterion C. The property is not known to have any associations with significant events or persons, or to have archeological potential, and is thus not eligible for listing under Criteria A, B, or D.
