Justification for decision: (Use continuation sheet if necessary and attach map)

The Air Force's consultant determined these buildings ineligible based on age and/or integrity. The World War II buildings have been significantly altered and do not form any cohesive architectural identity. The Trust concurred that all of these buildings were not eligible.

Documentation on the property/district is presented in: with this MHIP form and Andrews Air Force Base compliance file

Capsule Summary

Inventory No. PG: 77-36
Property Name: Sales Store Exchange #3487
Location: Andrews Air Force Base
Ownership: Public/Military
Date of Construction: ca. 1945

This building is one-story tall, concrete block structure built in 1945 on the east side of the base. The building was originally constructed as a vehicle service shop, with five service bays. The structure has a flat roof. It has been converted to a retail store. Interior spaces have been modified significantly to accommodate the new use. The service bays have been blocked up, the original windows, doors, and roof have been replaced. A new fascia has been placed at the top of the building. There are no landscape plantings around the building.

Building #03487 has been modified significantly since its construction in 1945 as a vehicle service facility. Evidence can be seen of the original service bay door openings, restroom doors, and windows, all now blocked up. A new parapet has been installed along the roof line, the original flat roof has been replaced, new storefront windows and doors installed, and the interior of the building has been changed to accommodate its use as a retail store.

The building was constructed in a third wave of construction at the base. It had no relationship or association with the original development and construction of the base, the historic context of WWII, or the mobilization effort in that period. The building was constructed to support the personnel stationed at the base.
