Criteria:  A  B  C  D Considerations:  A  B  C  D  E  F  G  None

Justification for decision: (Use continuation sheet if necessary and attach map)

The Air Force's consultant determined these buildings ineligible based on age and/or integrity. The World War II buildings have been significantly altered and do not form any cohesive architectural identity. The Trust concurred that all of these buildings were not eligible.

Documentation on the property/district is presented in: with this MHIP form and Andrews Air Force Base compliance file

Capsule Summary

Inventory No. PG: 77-47
Property Name: Farm Housing #04242
Location: Andrews Air Force Base
Ownership: Public/Military
Date of Construction: ca. 1925

Building #04242 is a one-story tall, wood-frame residential structure located on the west side of the base. It is a three-bay wide square house, with smaller additions on each side and the rear of the main building. The main entrance to the house is centered in the front, through a door set flush with the building front. Windows in the building are one-over-one, double-hung aluminum sash. The roof is high-pitched gable, covered with asphalt shingles. The main house has one roof dormer on the front. The entire building is covered with aluminum siding. The plan of the building has been changed to accommodate additional living space, bedrooms, and toilets. Landscape plantings surround the building, including bushes and mature trees.

This building is a small residential structure that predates construction of Andrews AFB. It is one-story tall, with a bedroom in the attic space. It is one of a handful of buildings on the site not removed to facilitate construction of the airfield. In the historic context of the site prior to the base, there is no evidence that this building represented an important example of architectural style or history. There is no relationship between it and important events or persons. It does not illustrate any unique or important construction methods or use of materials.
