Description of Property and Eligibility Determination (Use continuation sheet if necessary and attach map and photo)

Description:
The residence at 509 Kerby Hill Road consists of a 1 1/2- story, side gable bungalow cottage with aluminum siding, a concrete block foundation, and asphalt roof shingles. The original front porch has been enclosed and now contains a modern picture window and a row of contemporary windows flanking the entry. The other windows in the house are 6/1 or 6/6 units. A large rear addition employs a narrow vinyl siding. The building was constructed in 1936.

National Register Evaluation:
Research has not revealed any association between this structure and events that have made a significant contribution to the broad patterns of our history (Criterion A) or the lives of persons significant in the past (Criterion B). The building is not a good example of any style; nor is it distinguished; it does not represent the work of a master or display high artistic merit (Criterion C). Although archeology was not addressed in this study, there is not indication that the property is likely to yield information important in history or pre-history (Criterion D). Therefore, this
