Description of Property and Eligibility Determination (Use continuation sheet if necessary and attach map and photo)

Located at 7601 South Osborne Road, this artificial stone-clad house is one-and-a-half story high and three bays wide. Vernacular in style, it features 4/4 windows, a 1-leaf plate-glass door, and a center gable, asphalt shingle roof. The house has been remodeled, and the windows and doors have been moved and replaced.

The house reflects trends in residential development that characterized Prince George's County during the late-19th century. Following the Civil War, southern Maryland adjusted to shifts in economic activity and population centers. Railroads made the greatest impact upon community development in this period, particularly the completion of the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad's (B & P) main line from Bowie In Prince George's County to Pope's Creek in Charles County in 1872. The population of Prince George's County grew relatively slowly during the last three decades of the 19th century.

This c. 1900 structure is not eligible for the National Register. It lacks significance related to events, persons or architecture. Criterion D, information potential, was not assessed for this study.
