Deal Island Barber Shop
Deal Island
private

c. 1900

The old Deal Island barber shop is a single-story frame commercial building located in the center of Deal Island. One room in plan, the main block is extended by a shed addition that gives the building an asymmetrical appearance. Along with the Deal Island bank building, the old Barber Shop is one of a few commercial buildings to survive in this island community.

Prepare both a summary paragraph and a general description of the resource and its various elements as it exists today.

The Deal Island Barber Shop stands on the west side of MD 363 (Deal Island Road) in the community of Deal Island, Somerset County, Maryland. The small frame shop faces east with the gable oriented on an east/west axis.

Dating to the turn of the century, the weatherboard frame shop is supported by a minimal brick foundation, and it is covered with an asphalt shingle roof. A shed addition extends from the north side of the main block.

The east (main) elevation is an asymmetrical elevation with a gable roof covering the main block and a shed addition extending to the north. The only entrance is located in the shed section where a board door is framed by a plain surround. Two six-over-six sash windows light the main block, and a single six-over-six sash is located north of the entrance. The eaves to the building are slightly extended.

The south side of the main block is marked by two six-over-six sash windows, and the west side has a similar fenestration as the front of the building. A narrow brick stove stack rises against the west wall. The north side of the shed is lighted by a single six-over-six sash window.

The interior has been stripped of most of the barber shop fittings except for some mirrored shelving that remains on the south wall. Beveled glass mirrors are framed by decorative Victorian surrounds. Otherwise, the interior is finished in an ordinary manner.
