SACRED HEART ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH

Bushwood

Private

circa 1770 and 1892

The first church <sup>here</sup> was erected circa 1770. The will of George Slye of Bushwood, probated in 1773, provided that "the two acres whereon the small chapel now stands" be given to the Church together with the "church stuff." This first building was replaced on the same foundations by another frame church in 1892. This burned in the summer of 1946 and the present church was dedicated on February 22, 1947.

The cemetery dates from 1770 and contains some very large, old beech, oak and tulip poplar trees.
