

T-284
Adams House
Trappe
Private

Mid-19th Century

The Adams House is an impressive example of the Second Empire style. An outstanding feature of this house is the fine dentiled cornice which runs along the eave from which rises the characteristic Mansard roof. Shading the five bays of the main facade is a one-story porch supported by Tuscan columns.

T-284

Adams House

Trappe

10 * 2.62

50% 284

T-284

T-284

Adams the Tramp