

Little Otwell
Oxford vicinity
circa 1840; with additions

T-376

Little Otwell consists of an almost square 2-story central section of brick laid in common bond, flanked by two 20th century brick wings. The central section, which has original flooring and several Greek revival doors, was constructed by George Washington Melson, who is buried near the house.

10 x 1.74

75% 376

T-376

T-376

Little Otwell