ADDITIONAL ARCHITECTURAL OR STRUCTURAL DESCRIPTION:

T-699

The location of this house is on the east side of Bozman Road(RT.579), the third house north of Quaker Neck Road. It is a wood frame structure with gabled roof. The small part is one and one-half stories high with a two bay facade facing west. The entrance is to the left and there is a four over four window on the right. The facade of this portion that has a gable facing south is one bay with window in first and a window in the attic. Both are four over four. The larger portion of the house which is to the north of the small part, has three bays with the front entrance in the center bay. The windows in this portion are two over two and there is a corbeled chimney on the interior of the south end. The house has clapboard siding painted red and has a wood shingle roof.
