DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (if known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

152 West Washington Street is a large brick Federal style dwelling having 2 full storeys plus attic and an addition, ^{2 1}/₂ storey at basement level. Having the usual three bay facade with the doorway set off to one side, the entrance is reached by by external steps (that go past the two 3/3 basement windows) to an open vestibule, from which rise more steps to the first floor level. The vestibule is through a semi-circular archway, the main door inside is a large Federal style double door with fanlights and sidelights, both with lead tracery. Both first and second storey windows are shuttered and have 6/6 sash. On the roof above there are two dormers with round head windows and a large chimney rising between them. The house is long and narrow, extending some way back from the street; the east side of the house is visible and has similar 6/6 shuttered windows as found on the front facade.
