Date: Ca. 1910

Property Name: (Historic) D.S. Snively Wholesale Produce
(Present) Union Rescue Mission

Location: 117 North Prospect Street
Hagerstown, Maryland

Access: private X, public ___

Description:

This industrial building is a three and a half story brick structure, six bays wide. It is set back from North Prospect Street and placed directly against the rail siding that served it, and oriented to that side. The building is quite unembellished. It has segmentally arched openings with main story windows placed in pairs with vertical mullions. Some windows retain nine over nine light sash.

Significance:

This industrial building, the former D.S. Snively Wholesale Produce Co., which dates from the early part of this century represents the vast growth and development of commerce and industry in Hagerstown in the early 20th century. This building which was constructed as a wholesale produce warehouse was a business clearly dependent upon and caused by the elaborate rail transportation network available in Hagerstown at the time. It is located opposite the Cumberland Valley Railroad freight depot.
