Description

This is a two story brick Foursquare house with Colonial Revival features. It has a hip roof and pedimented dormers. It is a three bay structure with one over one and fifteen over one windows with segmentally arched tops. There is a wrap-around porch on the front of the house with some of the original fabric. The house does appear on the 1908 Sanborn map, and was the home of Taliaferro Bridges, a local builder and developer of the early 20th century.
