Description

This is a two story frame house with a central cross gable. It has a metal standing seam roof. It is a three bay structure with one over one windows. Across the front is a porch with original balustrades and posts. The exterior is covered with aluminum siding and the foundation is poured concrete. There is also a garage on the property. It appears on the 1915 Sanborn map, and reflects residential construction patterns in Hancock from the early 20th century.
