Description

This is a one-and-a-half story frame house with a gable-shed roof and a gable dormer off the back. Both are covered with a metal standing seam roof. It is a three bay structure with one over one windows. There is a porch on the front and a two story porch on the rear of the house. The exterior is covered with stucco and the foundation is rubble stone. It represents residential construction during Hancock's major growth phase of the early 20th century.
