	<small>DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (If known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE</small>
This house is located about 1/4 mile west of the Chewsville-Leitersburg Road (Route 62) approximately one mile north of Chewsville in Washington County, Md. It is situated in a low lying area and faces east. The structure is a one-and-a-half story, three-bay dwelling with a one-story, three-bay el extending to the rear. The construction of the walls is concealed by a coating of white stucco, under which it would appear are stones. Windows contain single-pane double-hung sashes and six-over-six light sashes. Most frames are moderately wide while windows in the rear el show turn-of-the-century period applied trim. The main entrance is located in the center bay of the front elevation. It is simple in appearance with a narrow transom over the door. A gable roofed entrance porch supported by square posts is present at the front door. The roof is covered with sheet metal and terminates with a plain barge board set against the end walls. The eaves are finished with plain boxing. A brick chimney is located inside the north gable end. A large stone exterior chimney is located at the west end of the el. The house is in fair to good condition and is located on a tract containing 7 acres.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE
The area of significance of this house is its architecture. Although it has received some changes, particularly at its windows, the house seems to have had, generally, few alterations and is representative of Washington County's early vernacular architecture.
