DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (If known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This house is located on the west side of Beck Road, about 3/4 mile north of Beard's Church Road between the villages of Chewsville and Leitersburg in Washington County, Maryland. It stands on relatively level ground and faces in an easterly direction.

The structure is a one and a half story, three bay dwelling, constructed of stone and covered with white stucco. A one and a half story, two bay all of frame construction extends to the rear. Other additions are of more modern construction.

Openings appear to be spaced evenly in the front elevation. Windows have two over two pane Victorian period sashes surrounded by plain board trim.

The main entrance is located in the center bay of the front elevation. The six panel door is held within a narrow frame. There is no decorative work associated with the entrance. Other entrances are located in the frame addition. A shed roofed porch supported with square posts extends along the front elevation.

The roof is covered with modern red asphalt shingles. The roof structure extends beyond the end walls and terminates with a plain barge board. The eaves are finished with plain board trim. The house has three flues, all of which are small and of brick construction. They are located at the exterior of the south gable wall and inside the north gable end at the west wall and at the exterior of the west end of the ell.

The house is in excellent condition and stands on a tract containing .99 acre. East of the house is a board and batten out building or summer kitchen.

The owners maintain the property and a small adjoining tract as a preserve for birds and wildlife.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

The area of significance of this house is its architecture. Although the construction details of the house have been concealed by the stucco covering, and much of its original exterior and interior woodwork appears to have been replaced, the structure represents a type of mid nineteenth century domestic architecture found in Western Maryland and the Cumberland Valley.
