Description:

This house may date from the turn of the century. It is a one story, three bay house, covered with wide lapped wooden siding of the 1940s or '50s. Windows have six over six sash within architraves with pointed tops and molded "keystones." The main entrance is located in the central bay. Certain features such as the windows at trim suggest construction in the 1880s or 1890s. Other features appear to date from the 1940s.

Facing onto the south side of Green Street, this house is located in front of the site of one of Funkstown's mills.

According to the 1877 Atlas map for Funkstown, there was a house on this property and it belonged to a Mrs. Sager. That house was located farther back on the lot than the present structure.
