Approximate date Ca.1920

This brick foursquare style house resembles many in Maugansville, especially those on Village Mill Drive in the south part of the village. This one has vestiges of Queen Anne influence with its first story semi-hexagonal projecting bay. Otherwise it has typical foursquare features: the hipped roof, square shape, dormer and front porch. The bricks are laid in all stretcher bond and there are segmental arches above the openings. Windows have single pane sash. The door is in the central bay of the three bay front elevation. Above the door is a narrow transom. Across the front is a porch supported by square posts resting on brick piers. A low brick wall with cast stone coping encloses the porch. There are only two openings at the front elevation second story. Behind the house is a framed gabled stable converted to a garage. This house is typical of Maugansville, which mostly developed during the early 20th century. The house is stylistically conservative reflecting the village's Mennonite plainness.
