Approximate date Ca.1900-1910

This two story three bay frame house, located on the west side of Village Mill Drive is similar to others on the street, except that it does not have an across-the-front porch (although it probably did originally). It is covered with narrow gauge milled siding and has a semi-hexagonal projecting bay in the south bay of the front elevation. Windows have single pane sash within architraves with molded flat tops. Windows at the front are flanked with shutters with movable louvers. The main entrance is located in the central bay of the front elevation and is surrounded with a 1930s-40s Colonial Revival pediment. The projecting bay has a hipped roof. Brick chimneys with corbeled tops are located inside the gable ends. A two story extension is attached to the rear elevation. The front yard is outlined by a poured concrete curb. In the rear of the lot is a frame gable roofed stable. This house is indicative of Maugansville's late development and conservative architectural expression based on Mennonite cultural heritage.
