DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (if known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This house is located about one mile west of Lappans Crossroads on the south side of Maryland Route 68 in the Fairplay vicinity of Washington County.

The structure is a two story, three bay brick cased dwelling with a four bay, one story el extending to the rear or south. The wall surfaces are faced with brick, laid in all stretcher bond and painted white. The brick would appear to cover earlier log construction.

Windows appear to be spaced evenly in the front or north and side elevations of the structure. The openings are relatively large with moderately wide frames holding two over two pane victorian period sashes.

The main entrance is located in the center bay of the front elevation. The entrance appears simple and is without decorative brickwork or a transom. Secondary entrances are located in the west gable elevation and to the rear addition.

The roof is of sheet metal, terminating with plain barge boards set directly against the end walls. The eaves are finished with simple boxing. An exterior chimney of brick is located at the east gable end of the house, north of its center.

The structure appears to be in good to excellent condition and is located on a tract containing 7.16 acres.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

This house is primarily significant for its architecture. Probably of log construction, it is representative of a major architectural group in Washington County. Log was a prominent building material in the area from the earliest days of settlement to well into the nineteenth century.

Many log structures remain in use in Washington County, but are encased with various forms of siding or bricks.
