Description

This house is a two story, three bay vinyl German sided frame building, dominated by a central cross gable. Other features include a one story semi-hexagonal projecting bay at the south end of the front elevation, and a two bay entrance porch supported by turned posts and decorative brackets. Windows have two over two pane sash. The main entrance is located in the center bay of the front elevation.

Built about 1900, this house is typical of Late Victorian dwellings in Keedysville. The 1877 Atlas' map shows this site occupied by W. Kitzmiller's wagon shop.
